CALL FOR PAPERS: PHILOSOPHY OF MANAGEMENT VIRTUAL PAPER MENTORING WORKSHOP

Philosophy of Management (PHOM <https://www.springer.com/journal/40926>) is pleased to offer scholars a mentored opportunity to develop their papers that undertake philosophical enquiry into a management practice, knowledge, theory or other management phenomenon.

The PHOM Virtual Paper Mentoring Workshop (PHOM-PMW) is aimed at scholars who are about to complete, or have recently completed, their PhD.

The purpose of each PHOM-PMW is to pair experienced authors/editors with participants who are interested in learning about philosophical enquiry and improving their paper manuscript.

You can apply to participate in a PHOM-PMW by submitting an extended abstract following the guidelines below:

- Extended abstracts should be no more than 10 pages double-spaced, excluding tables, figures and references.
- The extended abstract should include discussions of: the management phenomenon of interest, method of philosophical enquiry, what problem the enquiry seeks to address or what other contribution the paper seeks to make, as well as the main tenets of the argument and enquiry. Authors are encouraged to include the appropriate headers to demarcate these sections so as to best facilitate discussion.
- Authors are welcome to submit questions at the end of the extended abstract, specifically around areas for which they would like help, or questions around how to develop the paper. These questions do not count against the 10-page limit.

The journal's executive editors will choose the extended abstracts that will be invited for discussion. Each PHOM-PMW will revolve around extended abstracts submitted to and accepted for each workshop. Only those authors with accepted abstracts will be invited to attend.

Apply by emailing your extended abstract to Dr Vincent Blok vincent.blok@wur.nl

We are open for applications until 21 March 2021.

Notification of acceptance will be made by 25 April 2021.

The virtual workshops will take place during May, June and early July 2021.
