STR Junior Faculty Paper Development Workshop

Application & Submission Deadline: June 1st, 2023

The STR division will host the 12th Junior Faculty Paper Development Workshop this year. This invitation-only PDW offers Junior faculty from the Strategic Management Division (STR) community the opportunity to receive dedicated feedback from several senior faculty who have generously agreed to participate. Each senior faculty will be assigned a few papers, providing the opportunity to interact closely in each group. We will open the workshop session together with short remarks and then go into the round tables for each group.

The faculty mentors offer diverse geographic perspectives, and excellent research expertise. Many have been or are editors for leading journals.

- Stefano Brusoni, ETH Zurich
- Guoli Chen, INSEAD
- Giada Di Stefano, Bocconi University
- JP Eggers, New York University
- Gokhan Ertug, Singapore Management University
- Javier Gimeno, INSEAD
- Melissa Graebner, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign
- Isin Guler, UNC Chapel Hill
- Nan Jia, University of Southern California
- Olga Hawn, UNC Chapel Hill
- Karin Hoisl, Copenhagen Business School
- Riitta Katila, Stanford University
- Hong Luo, Harvard Business School
- Abhishek Nagaraj, UC Berkeley
- Tomasz Obloj, Indiana University
- Francisco Polidoro, University of Texas at Austin
- Michelle Rogan, Imperial College London
- Anne ter Wal, Imperial College London
- Dan Wang, Columbia University
- Heli Wang, Singapore Management University
- Lori Yue, Columbia University

Requirements: If you hold a faculty position as an Assistant Professor or comparable rank and your research focuses on STR related topics, we encourage you to apply to the JFPDW. Applications should include:

- Your curriculum vitae, including name, email address, title, institutional affiliation
- The paper you want to receive feedback on (a new working paper, or even a paper that's been through the review process already)
- An indication of three faculty mentors who are of most interest to you. (We will do our best to facilitate matches but this will depend a little on demand.)

Please submit your application online to STR.PaperDevelopmentWorkshop@gmail.com. Acceptance notification will be sent by June 15th 2023.
