Dublin City University
DCU Business School
Assistant Professor in Strategic Management
Five Year Fixed Term Contract

Org Overview

Dublin City University (www.dcu.ie) is a dynamic and innovative institution that is distinguished by both the quality and impact of its graduates and by its focus on the translation of knowledge into societal and economic benefit. Excellence in education and research activities has led to DCU's consistent ranking among the world's young universities. DCU is Ireland's fastest growing university, and now hosts more than 17,000 students across its three academic campuses: (DCU Glasnevin Campus, DCU St Patrick's Campus and DCU All Hallows campus).

DCU Business School is a dynamic school whose history is marked by steep upward development. From the outset, our guiding voices were those of industry and students and, as a result, we are today distinctive for our deep and responsive industry engagement and our close concern with the success of our students. From those beginnings in the 1980s, and particularly over the last ten years, DCU Business School has developed an excellent research profile characterised by its industry relevance and a strong international reach. The School is accredited by AACSB, AMBA and has been awarded the Small Business Charter from the Chartered Association of Business Schools. Additionally, our programmes have relevant professional accreditations. DCU Business School is an engaged, innovative internationally-focused school which prides itself on its excellent reputation for impacting students, the academic community, industry and wider society.

Role Profile

The successful candidate will be a member of the Work, Psychology and Strategy Group in DCU Business School. They will conduct high quality research and teaching in strategic management and international business and will also participate in the School's external engagement activities. Further, the successful candidate is expected to contribute to programme management, research supervision and the service activities of the School and University.
