

Call for Presentations

Research submissions:

We are currently accepting research papers for presentation at the Women in Leadership Forum held on March 12, 2022! Proposals will be for a 10-minute Zoom presentation on a topic relevant to women in leadership with additional time for questions and answers. The forum will include a mix of academic and professional audience members, including women executives and senior leaders. Thus, papers that have strong practical relevance or implications are particularly desirable. Papers for the presentations will include a maximum of 10 – pages (double spaced) excluding tables and references submission, which will be evaluated based on the criteria below. Conference proceedings will be published electronically. If you have any questions, please contact the research track chairs – Dr. Grant Brady and Dr. Lynn Bowes-Sperry at grant.brady@csueastbay.edu and lynn.bowessperry@csueastbay.edu.

Evaluation Criteria:

Proposals will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

1. Relevance of topic to the Women in Leadership Forum.
2. Clarity of hypotheses/research question(s) or soundness of theorizing if the work is conceptual.
3. Rigor and quality of methodology [if applicable].
4. Clear presentation of results or contributions to research [e.g., a typology].
5. Practical implications of findings.
