Date: 12 April 2024

Time: 1.00 pm BST (8.00 am EDT, 8.00 pm CST)

You are invited to join us on Friday 12 April for a free webinar focussing on the Journal of Vocational Behavior. In this webinar, Dr Ryan Duffy (Editor-in-Chief) will cover all things related to submission success, including:

How to prepare your manuscript

- How to avoid common missteps
- How to manage reviewer comments
- How to make your paper stand out

There will also be an opportunity for attendees to pose questions to Dr Duffy at the end of the webinar.

Dr. Ryan Duffy is a Professor of Psychology at the University of Florida. His research mainly on factors that promote well-being in the workplace, with a particular focus on the importance of decent and meaningful work. He is the author of over 140 peer reviewed journal articles and is currently the Editor-in Chief of the Journal of Vocational Behavior, the premier scholarly journal for studies on career choice, career development, and work adjustment.

The Journal of Vocational Behavior publishes original empirical and theoretical articles that contribute novel insights to the fields of career choice, career development, and work adjustment across the lifespan and which are also valuable for applications in counseling and career development programs in colleges and universities, business and industry, government, and the military. The Journal primarily focuses on investigations of individual decision-making about work and careers rather than studies of employer or organizational-level variables. Example topics include initial career choices (e.g., choice of major, initial choice of work or organization, organizational attraction), the development of a career, work transitions, work-family management, work adjustment and attitudes within the workplace (such as work commitment, multiple role management, turnover).
